

I feel that NJ has an effective "Do not call" law and it should not be weakened. Telemarketers have for too long annoyed the public with calls and even gone so far as using recorded automated messages. In my own experience, being a handicapped senior, I find these calls to be a disturbance to my well being.